Cleveland, Ohio (PRWEB) August 30, 2006 -- Athletic Scholarship Corporation executives attended The Charity Game at Cleveland Browns Stadium on August 26th 2006. The annual event hosted by Home Team Marketing featured a double header of the areas best high school football players.

"There was a great deal of talent displayed on the field" stated AJ Hodel, ASC's founder. The double header matched Glenville vs. Mentor & Strongsville vs. Solon. Each team showcased their key athletes. For Glenville, Kyle Jefferson answered any questions about his ability as a physical big play receiver. "Kyle showed great body control and concentration" stated Dave Harris ASC's area scout.

Mentor took the game in the final seconds on the leg of kicker Kevin Harper, who struggled most of the game.

Solon featured a game breaker in Charles Matthews. Matthews a standout WR displayed some of the best special teams play of the week. "The guy is real fast and you never see anyone get a square shot on him" Hodel stated.

Athletic Scholarship Corporation offers a complete online communication system with daily updates to coaches and student-athletes for every collegiate sport nationwide.
